

15 Lessons Learned from a New Manager

Carrie Phillips
Chief Communications
& Marketing Officer

University of Arkansas
at Little Rock

Today's Agenda

1 Let's Meet

2 Current Scenario

3 A Few Tips

4 Questions

Let's Meet

Poll Question

The Great Resignation

The Great Resignation

Last year was a record-setting year for the labor market, with nearly 48 million people quitting their jobs.

The Great Resignation

Last year was a record-setting year for the labor market, with nearly 48 million people quitting their jobs.

The primary demographic of the employees driving the movement are those aged 30 to 45.

The Great Resignation

Last year was a record-setting year for the labor market, with nearly 48 million people quitting their jobs.

The primary demographic of the employees driving the movement are those aged 30 to 45.

Growing job vacancies make things even worse for those who remain. Half of those polled said they had been required to take on more work and responsibilities.

Poll Question

What Does it All Mean Though...

Welcome to Management

15 Lessons Learned

Tip One

What does leadership mean
to you?

Tip Two

Support your team by investing in yourself

Tip Three

Your character will always be considered

Tip Four

Decide what is your Bucket A & what is your Bucket B

Tip Five

Consistency is critical for your team

Tip Six

Be decisive when your team needs
a decision

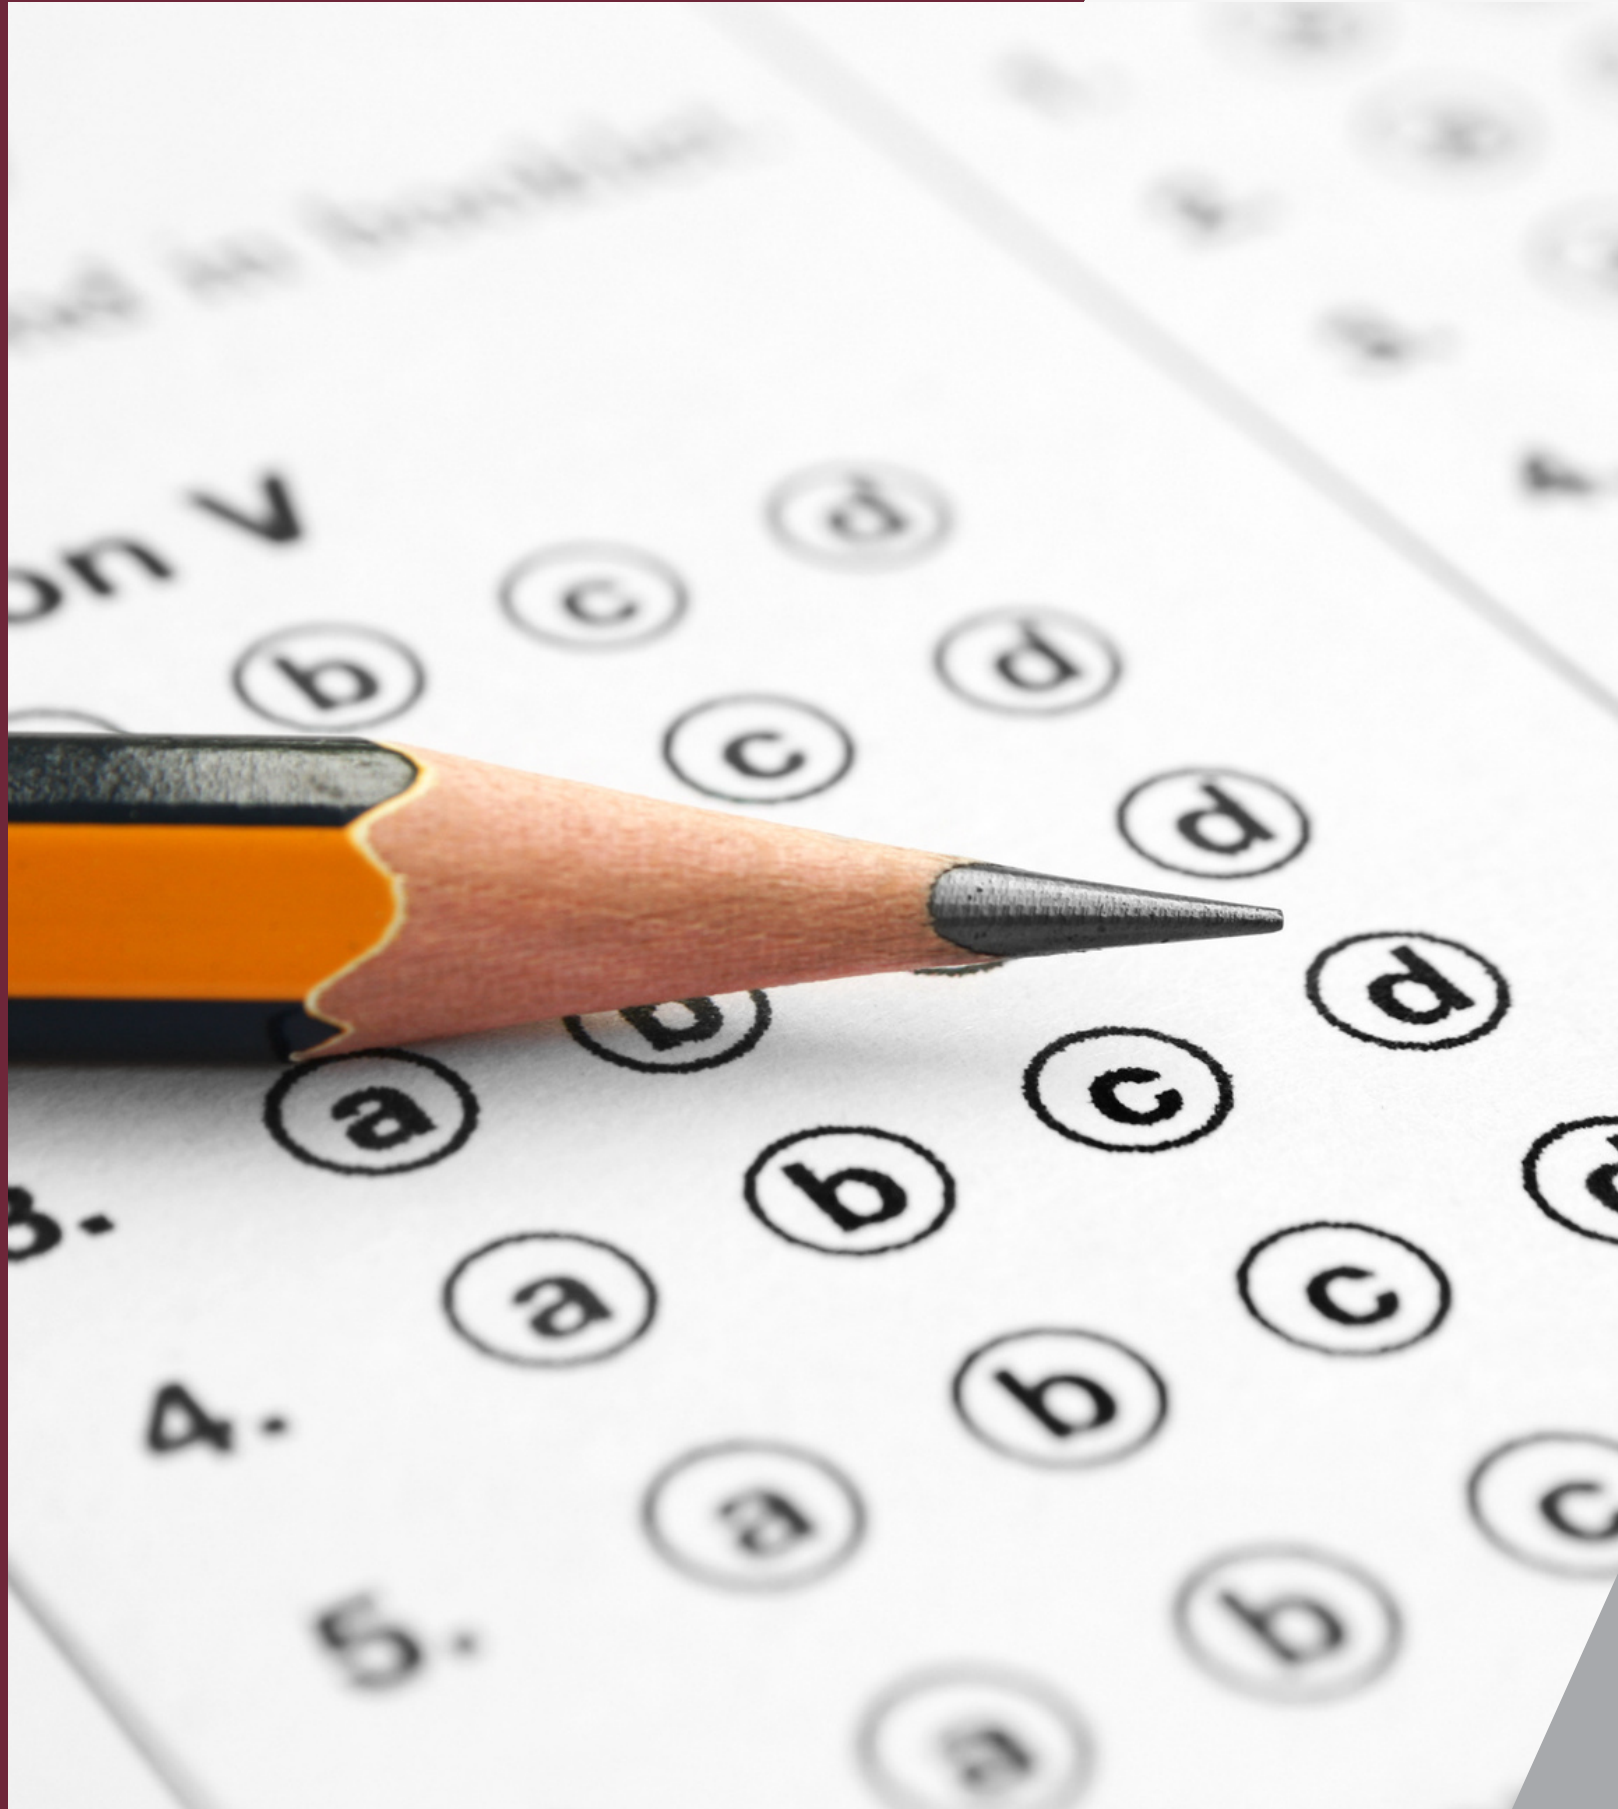

Tip Seven

Invest in your people regularly

Tip Eight

Find a mentor or several who can support you

Tip Nine

Tests will be coming your way

Tip Ten

Don't just accept monkeys from your team

Tip Eleven

Celebrate the victories when they happen with your team

Poll Question

Tip Twelve

Create the culture you want with your team

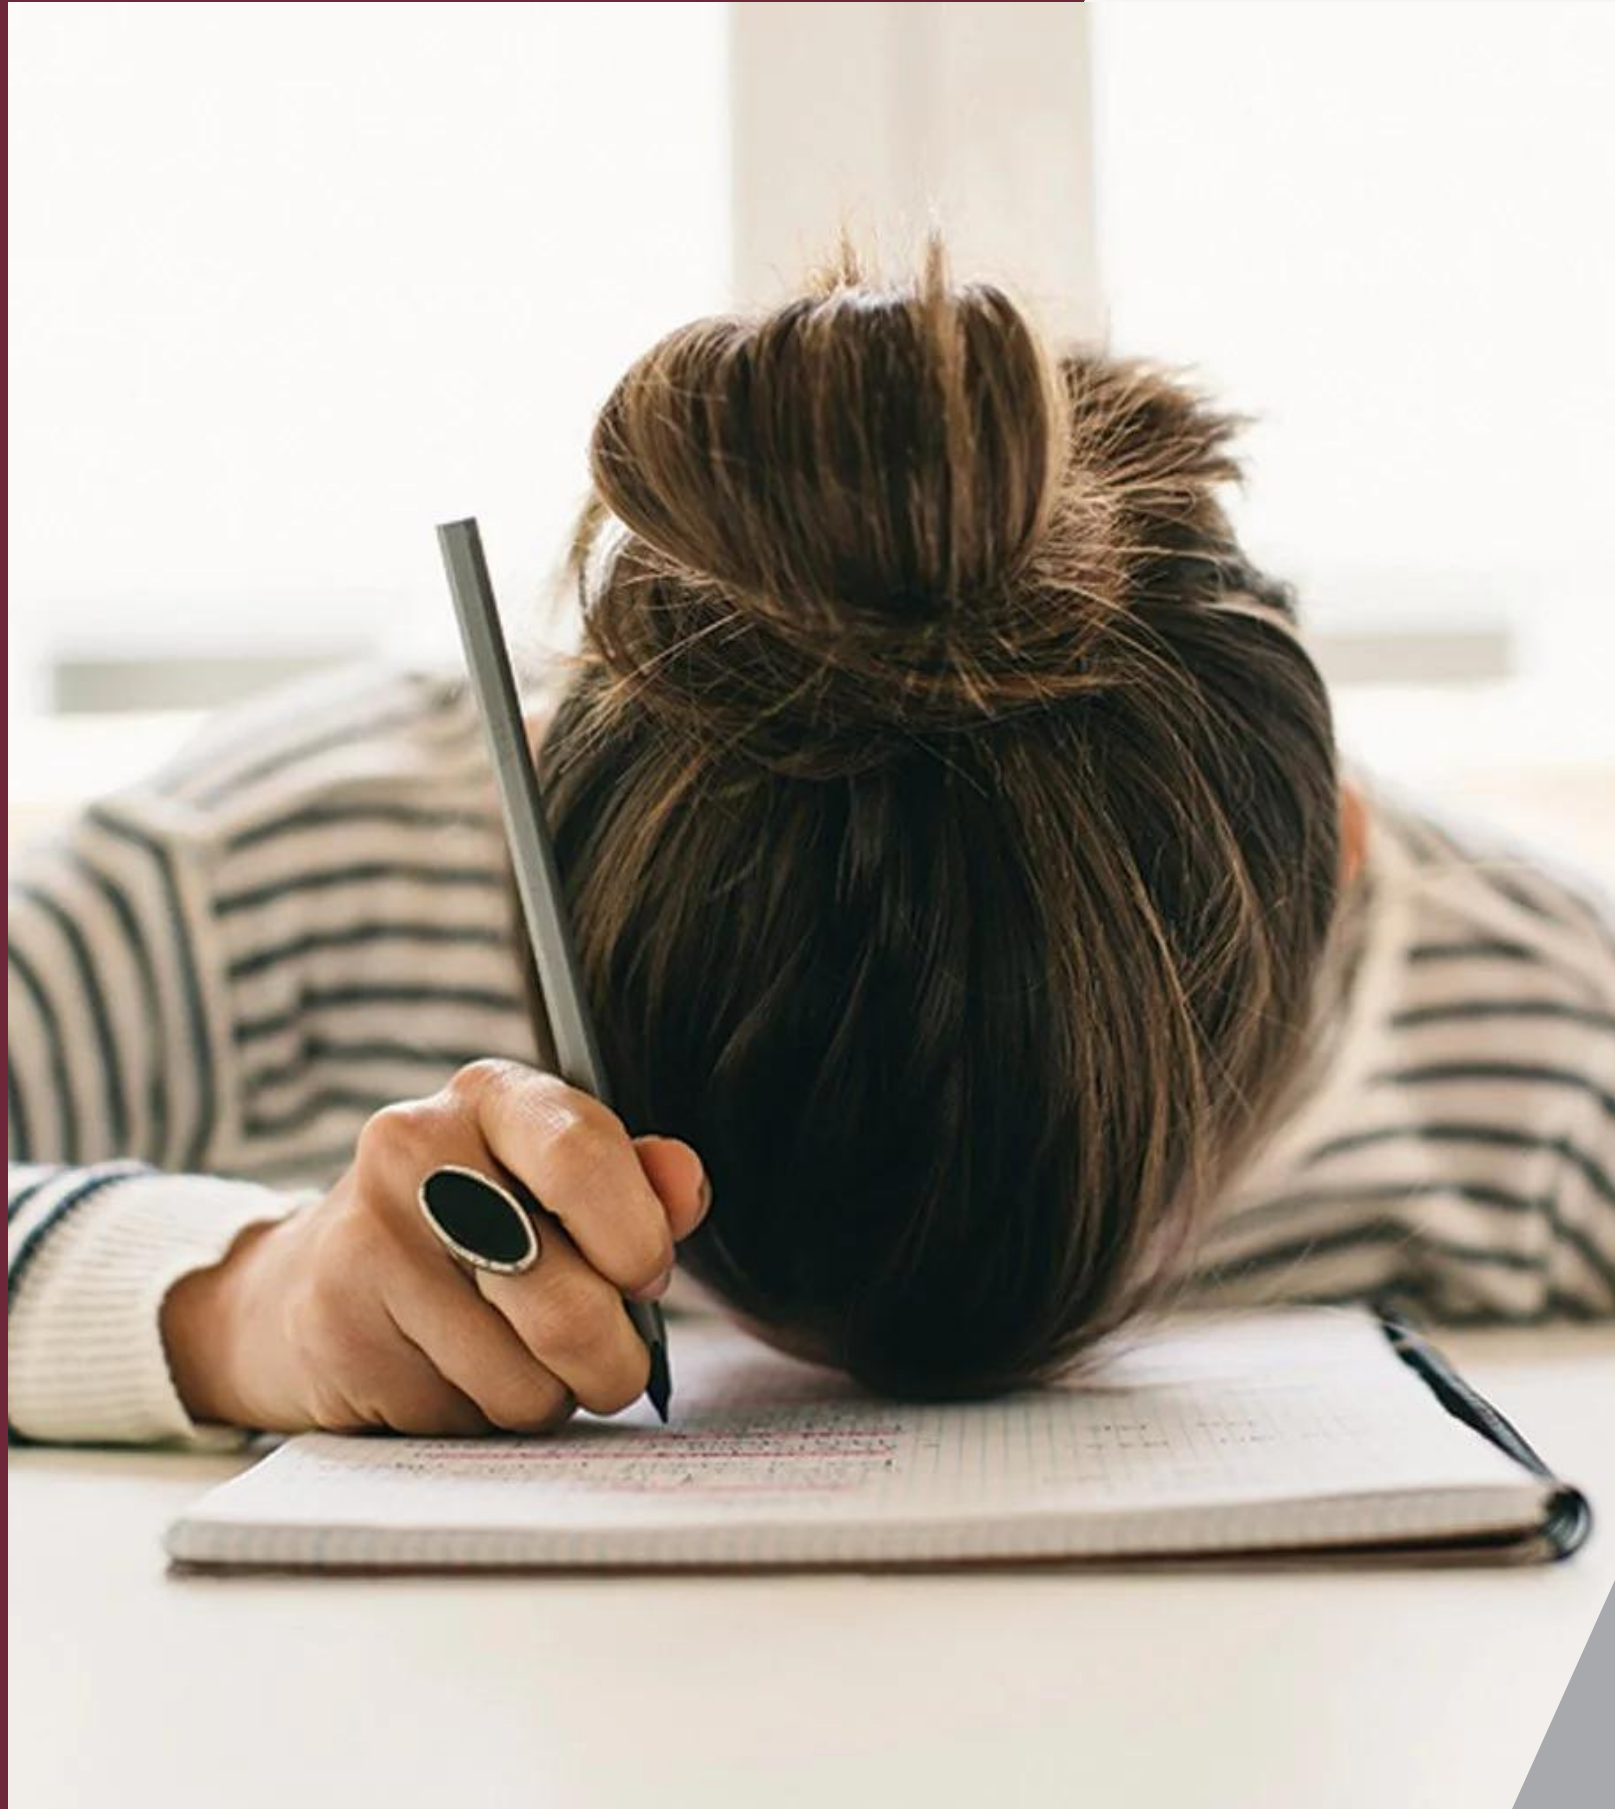

Tip Thirteen

Model the behavior you want from your team

Tip Fourteen

Take the good
and the bad of
being a leader

Tip Fifteen

Being a new manager is hard sometimes.

Closing Thoughts

Perfection. Mistakes. Impact.

15 Lessons Learned from a New Manager

